For record keeping and other purposes, a hospital must list the care and services it rendered to a patient. This might include information such as medicine that was given to the patient, ultrasound or similar tests that were performed, and the conclusion of the tests. Most discharge forms are pretty specific about what services were rendered.

Many civilians commonly assume that people "retire" from the military when they leave the service, which isn't always the case. Receiving a discharge, or separation, is not the same thing as military retirement.. A military discharge is simply defined as a military member being released from their obligation to continue service in the armed forces.
